

WIDENER UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
Health Law I: Liability & Quality (709)

Fall 2011

Professor Thaddeus Pope

Contacts: Room 325; tmpope@widener.edu; 302-477-2230

Time: Tuesdays 8:20 – 9:45 p.m. & Thursdays 6:30 – 7:55 p.m.

Place: L-126 (in Delaware) and A-178 (in Harrisburg)

Midterm Exam: Thursday, October 13, 2011 from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m.

Final Exam: Thursday, December 8, 2011 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.

I. Course Description

The healthcare industry has become perhaps the most regulated in the United States. As providers and other players respond to this regulatory environment, the health law field has become a dynamic and complex area of law. And it is one evidencing a marked growth in legal employment. Indeed, health law has become such a specialized area that some states have developed board certification programs in healthcare. Still, this course might alternatively be characterized as an advanced torts class in which healthcare is just a “vehicle” for exploring liability as a means for assuring quality. This course emphasizes legal doctrine over litigation strategy or public policy. It is designed to prepare you for legal practice regardless of where your professional path takes you.

Health Law can be divided into five subfields: (1) finance and regulation, (2) public health, (3) biotechnology and life sciences, (4) bioethics, and (5) patient care. This course focuses on patient care, especially as it is regulated through provider liability. Specific topics include: (a) the formation and termination of the treatment relationship (contracts); (b) the duty to treat (statutory); (c) informed consent (torts); (d) confidentiality (torts, statutory); (e) medical malpractice (torts, evidence, civil procedure, agency), (f) hospital liability (torts, agency); (g) managed care liability and ERISA preemption (agency, statutory); (h) licensure (statutory); and possibly (i) end-of-life health care decision making (statutory). The unifying themes are mechanisms to assure medical quality and patient autonomy.

This class is cross-enrolled by J.D., L.L.M., M.J., and S.J.D. students. The class will draw heavily on Torts, as well as from Civil Procedure, and Contracts. Familiarity with Agency and Evidence is also recommended but certainly not required.

II. Course Objectives

Upon completion of the course, students will have:

- A. A basic systematic understanding of the legal principles surrounding civil liability concerning the provision of medical treatment.
- B. Further honed legal analysis and writing abilities, through: (i) exposure to and critique of legal arguments in judicial opinions, legislative reports, and scholarly writing; (ii) participation in classroom discussion; (iii) completion of and feedback on weekly problems; (iv) completion of and feedback on a written midterm examination; and (v) completion of and feedback on a written final examination.
- C. Integration of material learned in other classes, such as: business organizations, civil procedure, contracts, evidence, statutory interpretation, and torts.

III. Required Materials

- A. There is no casebook for this course. All course materials will be distributed through the course TWEN site. I recommend that you download these documents in PDF instead of opening and reading them in HTML. Alternatively, by using citations of the sources on TWEN, you can obtain almost all course materials directly through Westlaw and Lexis, should you want to use their dedicated printers. However, using such resources probably will not work for the minority of course materials that are comprised of medical journals, reports, and PACER documents.
- B. While we will cover a fair number of court cases, a substantial portion of the material will be comprised of statutes, regulations, government reports, and academic law and policy articles.
- C. Due to the rapid and current changes in this area, other materials may be added or substituted.

IV. Class Schedule

- A. The class will meet on Tuesdays from 8:20 to 9:45 p.m. and on Thursdays from 6:30 to 7:55 p.m. in Room L-126 (in Delaware) and A-178 (in Harrisburg).
- B. The class will meet 26 times. But the class not meet on the following three dates: (i) Tuesday, October 11th due to In-Service; (ii) Thursday, November 17th due to a conference conflict, and (iii) Thursday, November 24th due to Thanksgiving. The last class meets on Thursday, December 1st.

- C. One or more class sessions may be offered in an online format. This means that you will be able to “attend” these sessions from wherever you have Internet access.
- D. Depending on class interest, I am happy to schedule an extra “review” class during the weeks before the final exam. Please email your questions to me at least 24 hours before such session to better enable me to answer them. I am also happy to meet, at any time during the semester, both with individual students in my office, and with small groups in the 3rd Floor Faculty Conference Room. For example, last year, several students found it useful to review their essays on extra practice problems.
- E. Several students from Widener’s Harrisburg campus are taking this course through a video link to Wilmington. They are expected, and should be able, to participate in all aspects of the course as fully as Delaware students. I will also make several trips to the Harrisburg campus to meet with these students.

V. What to Do First -- in August

- A. Register for the TWEN site with the email address that you use most regularly.
- B. If you have not used TWEN before, review the student user guide:
<http://west.thomson.com/productdetail/1-5704-5/RM157045/productdetail.aspx>
- C. Calendar key course dates into your planning and calendaring systems.
- D. Register with the Registrar to type your midterm and final exams (highly recommended but not required).

VI. Attendance, Preparation, and Participation

- A. Attendance: Under American Bar Association rules, 80% attendance is required to allow you to write the final exam. Attendance will be taken by passing class lists for signature at the start of each class session. Harrisburg attendance will be taken orally.
- B. Class Preparation: I employ only a moderate amount of lecture but lots of case method questions and problems. Consequently, students must come to class prepared to discuss the material assigned. All assigned cases must be read and briefed. Analyze each case using the following headings: (i) essential substantive facts, (ii) procedural posture, (iii) issues, (iv) legal principles, (v) reasoning, and (vi) holding. You do not need to know the correct answer (if there is one), but know the reading material and make a reasonable effort to think about the issues raised.

- C. Preparation Time: It is impossible to say exactly how much time you will need for class preparation, since each person's needs are different. But it is likely that you will need around three hours of preparation for each class. This includes: reading the materials, briefing the cases, consolidating prior notes, and taking the weekly quiz.
- D. Warning about Class Preparation: Brief the cases yourself. Do not make use of commercially prepared outlines before writing your own brief. As Professor DeWolf (at Gonzaga Law) explains, "they are like narcotics. Initially they make you feel good (by taking away your anxiety), but precisely for that reason they have a corrosive effect upon your learning. It is as though you were taking violin lessons, and instead of playing the scales you were assigned by your teacher, you bought a tape of Itzak Perlman playing those scales."
- E. Class Participation: All students are expected to participate in class discussions. Sometimes this will be through "clickers" like PollAnywhere. Other times, it will be by "cold calling." If illness or emergency prevents you from being fully prepared, please notify me before class. As explained in Section X below, 10% of your course grade is based on class participation.
- F. Meandering Discussion: I want to leave discussion sufficiently free so that you discover key points on your own and feel ownership in lessons learned. Still, I must exert control over class discussion to ensure that you are exposed to key points and to ensure that you are not confused by a discussion that runs too long or too tangentially. It is inappropriate and unfair to hold scores of students hostage to the too-peculiar line of inquiry of just one student. If we did not get to them, I am happy to explore your questions outside class in any of the ways described in section XIII below.
- G. Laptops: I will use an instant-poll tool (probably PollAnywhere) in which the entire class "votes" on the answers to orally-posed problems through a browser-supported template. Accordingly, laptops are welcome. If you do not bring a laptop, I expect that you can "vote" either through a neighbor's laptop (after refreshing the browser) or through your cell phone.
- H. TWEN Participation: Students are encouraged to participate not only in class but also through the TWEN discussion boards. Start a new thread or comment on one already in progress. The best posts: (i) are full of insight and analysis (critical thinking), (ii) reference the course materials, and (iii) are clearly written (organization & style).
- I. Volunteering: I will frequently ask a question that stumps the person whom I have called on. I will give that person time to think about the question, and see if they can come up with an answer. It will sometimes happen that you have an answer, and instinctively raise your hand to volunteer. I may or may not call on you at that moment. I would prefer your attempt to answer than mine, but best of all is to continue dialogue with the student who was initially called on.

Nonetheless, to move things along I may let the volunteer help. Please be sensitive to the fact that the student who is called on often suffers from stage fright, and the most obvious things slip from their mind.

- J. Ask Questions: I begin each class by asking for both administrative and substantive questions. If you want to know what pages we will cover, please ask. If you are having trouble grasping a particular doctrine, please ask. Alternatively, send an email or start a discussion thread on TWEN.
- K. Show & Tell: The topics in this class are constantly in the news and in the plot lines of movies and broadcast shows. If you notice a story that illustrates or discusses a class topic, please send me an email or start a discussion thread on TWEN. It is both fun and rewarding to work through legal problems in the context of a visually compelling, dramatic clip.
- L. Outlining: The traditional method of exam preparation for law students involves making an outline of all course material. After every unit of material (e.g. formation and termination), but at least every two weeks, you should review and consolidate your case notes, class notes, and other material into an outline, flowchart, or other document. Furthermore, you should aim to edit this growing document every time you add to it, both to improve the organization and to clarify the content. The more actively you engage the materials, the better your grasp and retention will be.

VII. Classroom Etiquette

- A. The classroom environment must be conducive to learning for all students. Distractions made possible by advances in technology may undermine that goal.
- B. Audial: During class, in addition to the usual courtesies, kindly disable and refrain from using cell phones, pagers, and any other communication device other than your laptop computer. And please mute your laptop.
- C. Visual: Please refrain from displaying wallpaper, screen savers, or other material on your laptop computer that you can reasonably expect to be offensive or distracting to other students.
- D. End Time: I will be diligent about starting the class precisely at 6:30 and 8:20 and ending it precisely at 7:55 and 9:45. In return, please do not begin to pack-up early while others are still trying to be engaged in the class discourse.

VIII. Grading

- A. Weekly Quizzes (10%) – see section IX
- B. Class Participation (10%) – see section X
- C. Midterm Exam (20%) – see section XI
- D. Final Exam (60%) – see section XII
- E. To make my calculations more objective and transparent, I convert all the above percentages into points. There are a total of 300 points for the course. The final exam is worth 180 points. The midterm exam is worth 60 points. The weekly quizzes are worth a total of 30 points. Class participation is worth 30 points. Grading methods are more fully explained in the next four sections.

IX. Required Quizzes

- A. Rationale: I will assign weekly quizzes for three reasons. First, while I will provide informal, oral feedback during class discussions, I do not want the first formal feedback that you receive to be your graded midterm or final exam. Second, I want you to approach the material actively. Third, because later topics in this course build on earlier ones, I want to provide some external motivation to stay current.
- B. Format: Some quizzes will be comprised of three multiple choice questions. Others will entail drafting a roughly 250-word essay. These (along with the midterm) constitute “formative assessment,” while the final exam constitutes “summative assessment.”
- C. Due Date: You will complete the quizzes before class on the course TWEN site. I will announce and post the quizzes on most Thursdays. They will be due by 5:00 p.m. the following Tuesday. I will review the quiz in Tuesday’s class or post a feedback memo.
- D. Coverage: These weekly quizzes are primarily meant to test basic understanding of legal principles covered at about the time of the quiz. They are simpler than questions on the midterm and final exams that require more analysis.
- E. Grading: I will grade the quizzes. The ten quizzes, in the cumulative, comprise 20% of your total course grade. Each quiz is worth three points or roughly 1% of your total course grade (300 points).
- F. TWEN: Many students have found it useful to approach the multiple choice question quizzes in this manner: (i) open and print the quiz, (ii) answer the questions “offline,” and then (iii) log-in and submit their answers. The short essay quizzes should be submitted as Word or PDF files in TWEN's "Assignment Drop Box." If you ever have a technical problem, just email me your quiz answers.

X. Class Participation

- A. Class participation comprises 10% of your course grade, 30 of the 300 total course points.
- B. The typical student who regularly meaningfully participates will earn all 30 points. Those who are unprepared or frequently absent will earn either half or none of these points.

XI. Midterm Exam

- A. Date: The midterm exam is scheduled from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m. on Thursday, October 13, 2011.
- B. Weight: The midterm exam comprises 20% of your course grade, 60 of the 300 total course points.
- C. Grades: The only letter grade for this course is the final course grade based on the total 300 points. Nevertheless, to enable you to gauge your relative performance, I will assign letter grades to the midterm exams based on the mandatory curve. While the numeric scores compute (60 of 300 points), midterm letter grades are informational only.
- D. Everything else about the midterm exam is the same as the final exam, except that the midterm is only 75 minutes instead of three hours.

XII. Final Exam

- A. Date: The final exam is scheduled from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Thursday, December 8, 2011.
- B. Weight: The final exam comprises 60% of your course grade, 180 of the 300 total course points.
- C. Format and Length: The final examination will be comprised of three roughly equal parts. This three-part structure has been proven to maximize an exam's reliability and validity. The first part will include multiple choice questions (roughly 25 questions in 50 minutes). The second part will include short or “directed” essay questions (roughly two questions in 50 minutes) focused on one or two specific issues. The third part will include a long essay problem (roughly one question in 80 minutes). The essays are essentially hypothetical factual circumstances in which you will be expected to: (i) identify the legal issues, (ii) analyze the problems by applying the correct legal principles to the facts, and (iii) argue for a reasonable conclusion.

- D. Coverage: The exam will test those concepts and issues either covered in assigned readings or explored during class lectures and discussions. The exam will roughly reflect the relative time and emphasis on topics in the course. For example, malpractice will be tested more heavily than licensure.
- E. Open Book: On the exam, you will be allowed to use any written or printed materials that you choose. No electronic devices are permitted except through ExamSoft.
- F. Warning about Open Book: Having your notes and materials will not relieve you of the need to already know the material. Indeed, it is very probable that if you do not study for this exam exactly as you would for a closed-book exam, then you will do very poorly and perhaps not pass.
- G. ExamSoft: I strongly encourage you to register to type your midterm and final exams, using your laptop and special security software that you can download from the Law School’s website, <<https://www.examsoft.com/widenerlaw>>. Typing your exam allows you to create a work product in a way that will be least distracting from the substance.
- H. Grading: All exams will receive a raw score from zero to 180. The raw score is meaningful only relative to the raw score of the other students in the class. The raw score will be added to the midterm and quiz scores. That total will then be converted to a scaled score, based on the class curve. For example, if the highest raw score in the class were 240/300, then that student would receive an A. The final grades will comport with Law School’s grading policies and grading curve described in the Student Handbook.
- I. Grading Criteria: I have posted six years of my Health Law midterm and final exams and exam feedback memos to the library exam database. Some of those exams (especially before 2007) had a broader coverage than we will have in this course. Indeed, the coverage in none of these prior classes will be identical to yours. Your exams will be based only on what we cover in this class. Still, by working through these old exams, you can get a good sense of the criteria that I employ in grading. In short, I look for:
1. An ability to muster relevant evidence and authority to make arguments both cogently and clearly
 2. An understanding of substantive legal doctrine

3. An appreciation for broader policy concerns that influence how legal doctrine applies to novel situations
 4. A practical appreciation for the context of care in a hospital setting and for the context of tort litigation
- J. Exam Feedback: Several weeks after the exam, I will post on the TWEN site: (i) a copy of the exam, (ii) a blank scoring sheet and explanatory memo, and (iii) model answers.
- K. Mandatory Curve: This course is cross-enrolled by J.D., L.L.M., M.J., and S.J.D. students. Only the J.D. students are subject to the mandatory curve. The M.J. grades are curved separately. I typically convert L.L.M. and S.J.D. scores into letter grades by reference to the J.D. curve.
- L. Exam Review: All grades are final. While sometimes seemingly unfair in application, pursuant to school rules, there will be no negotiations regarding revisions, except to correct any mathematical or clerical errors in computing the final score. Of course, I will be happy to go over the exam with anyone who schedules an appointment to review the exam. On request, I scan and email you a copy of your exam answers. If – after reviewing these against the exam, the feedback memo, model answers, and your notes – you have questions about your exam, please email those to me in advance of our meeting so that I can be sufficiently prepared to ensure a productive and efficient meeting.

XIII. Office Hours

I look forward to talking to you outside class. There are several means of doing this:

- A. After class: I will remain in the classroom after each class for all trailing questions, until or unless we are kicked out by another class.
- B. Office: I can typically be found in my office before and after class. If this is not a convenient time, just let me know in class or by email and we can make an appointment with each other. You are welcome to drop in my office anytime, but it is best to confirm a specific time in advance. If you have a specific question, I recommend that you send me the question via email ahead of time. In this way, I can think about your question and offer my best assistance.
- C. Email: Feel free to e-mail me anytime at tmpope@widener.edu. I will try to promptly answer any question as soon as possible.
- D. TWEN: Whether you want to elaborate or clarify the required materials or class discussions, you can start a discussion thread on the TWEN site. You are encouraged to provide constructive comments within each other's threads.

- E. Lunch or Coffee: I have found that grabbing a quick lunch (or given the time of this class, coffee/tea) is a good way to get to know each other. If you and one or two other students want to share a bite/coffee/tea, please let me know.

XIV. TWEN Site

The TWEN site will include the following materials:

- A. All required reading for the course (e.g. cases, statutes, articles)
- B. PowerPoint slides for each class, posted before each class
- C. Links to MP3 recordings of selected classes and periodic summaries
- D. Weekly Quizzes (see section IX, supra)
- E. Optional supplementary and background reading
- F. Materials concerning health law writing and career opportunities

Warning!! Do not permit the availability of these materials to deter you from preparing and participating in class. I provide these materials to supplement and enhance classroom learning, not to substitute for it. It is important to remember that knowledge acquisition is only one small part of law school education. I plan to do little lecturing during classes. Lectures may seem to provide more value – more content, more certainty. It may seem like you are “learning” more. But this would be poor preparation for the practice of law where there is little certainty. Furthermore, nonattendance is not an option given University and ABA attendance requirements, and the grading policy described above.

XV. Study Aids and Reference Materials

Despite the prevalence of health law courses in U.S. law schools, there are, as yet, few student-oriented ancillary materials. But there are numerous clear and lucid law review articles and background reports. I will provide copies of, or links to, the more useful of these materials on a topic-by-topic basis. And you have direct free access to most of these through HeinOnline, Westlaw, and other databases.

There are also some good reference books. You really do not need to use any of these sources. I list them here only should you want to consult them to get more depth or breadth on certain issues.

A. Study Aids

- 1. MARCIA M. BOUMIL & PAUL HATTIS, MEDICAL LIABILITY IN A NUTSHELL (West 3d ed. 2011).
- 2. BARRY R. FURROW, THOMAS L. GREANEY, SANDRA H. JOHNSON, TIMOTHY STOLTZFUS JOST & ROBERT L. SCHWARTZ, HEALTH LAW (2d ed. West Hornbook series 2000) (adapted from the 3-volume practitioner series).

3. MARK A. HALL, IRA MARK ELLMAN & DANIEL S. STROUSE, HEALTH CARE LAW AND ETHICS IN A NUTSHELL (3d ed. West 2011).
4. SANDRA H. JOHNSON & ROBERT L. SCHWARTZ , BIOETHICS AND LAW IN A NUTSHELL (West 2009).
5. ROBERT D. MILLER, PROBLEMS IN HEALTH CARE LAW (9th ed. Jones & Bartlett 2006).

B. Study Aids for Non-Lawyers

1. TONIA D. AIKEN, LEGAL AND ETHICAL ISSUES IN HEALTH OCCUPATIONS (Elsevier 2008).
2. GEORGE J. ANNAS, THE RIGHTS OF PATIENTS: THE AUTHORITATIVE ACLU GUIDE TO THE RIGHTS OF PATIENTS (3d ed. NYU 2004).

9. FAY A. ROZOVSKY, CONSENT TO TREATMENT: A PRACTICAL GUIDE (4th ed. Aspen 2009).

XVI. Course Reading Outline

The outline below is intended to give you a sense of the course coverage. It is not a reading schedule. Given the interactive nature of the law school classroom, it is difficult to predict, much less promise, exactly what material we will be covering on a specific future date. Closely (but not exactly) following its sequence, I will give the specific assignment for the following week during the prior week. Please note that this course is cumulative. Except for the last two units, later topics build on earlier ones.

The current assignment will always be posted on the TWEN home page. Old assignments will be collected as a TWEN “document” under the “Admin” tab. All the following materials are available from the TWEN site. Alternatively, most of them can be also obtained from Westlaw and Lexis, if you would find printing from their dedicated printers more convenient. I will probably assign additional material to reinforce and link legal concepts presented below.

1. Triggering of Treatment Duties

A. Duty to Treat

- 1. Duty to Treat: Common Law for Physicians
Rosenbaum, JAMA (2003) (for overview to 1552) 5p
Hurley v. Eddingfield (Ind. 1901) 1p
- 2. Duty to Treat: Common Law for Hospitals
Wilmington Hosp. v. Manlove (Del. 1961) 7p
Walling v. Flint Osteopathic Hosp. (Mich. App. 1990) 2p
- 3. Duty to Treat: Constitutional Law
Wideman v. Shallowford Hosp. (11th Cir. 1987) 10p

4. Duty to Treat: EMTALA for Hospitals

Lee, Annals Health L. (2004) (for overview) 7p
EMTALA statute, 42 U.S.C. 1395dd 4p
EMTALA regulations, 42 C.F.R. 489.24 7p
In re Baby K (4th Cir. 1994) 7p
Kaufman v. Franz (E.D. Pa. 2009) 3p
Toretti v. Main Line (3d Cir. 2009) 10p
Smith v. Albert Einstein (3d Cir. 2010) 3p
Jonhson v. Portz (D. Del. 2010) 9p

5. Duty to Treat: EMTALA for Physicians

EMTALA does not authorize private actions against physicians.
While private damages actions are the main enforcement vehicle,
EMTALA does authorize administrative sanctions.
Burditt v. DHHS (5th Cir. 1991) 14p

6. Duty to Treat: ADA

ADA statute, 42 U.S.C. 12101-02 & 12181-82 5p
Bragdon v. Abbott (U.S. 1998) (majority) 14p
Glanz. v. Vernick (D. Mass. 1991) 7p
McElroy v. Univ. Neb. (D. Neb. 2007) 7p

7. Duty to Treat: Other Statutes

Hill Burton Act (1946), 42 C.F.R. 124.601 4p
Title VI (1964), 42 U.S.C. 2000d, 42 C.F.R. 80.3 2p
Walker v. Pierce (4th Cir. 1977) 7p

B. Treatment Relationship

The formation and existence of a treatment relationship is a prerequisite for the triggering of duties that the physician owes qua physician (e.g. informed consent, non-abandonment, malpractice).

1. Formation: Treating Physicians

Adams v. Via Christi (Kan. 2001) 10p
Clanton v. Von Haam (Ga. App. 1986) 4p
Lyon v. Grether (Va. 1977) 4p

2. Formation: Consulting and Non-Treating Physicians

Reynolds v. Decatur Hosp. (Ill. App. 1996) 8p
Bazakos v. Lewis (N.Y.A.D. 2008) 12p
Bazakos v. Lewis (N.Y. 2009) 2p
Jennings v. Badgett (Okla. 2010) 5p
Smith v. Radecki (Alaska 2010) 12p

3. Termination: Tortuous Abandonment
Ricks v. Budge (Utah 1937) 8p
Payton v. Weaver (Cal. App. 1982) 6p
4. Termination: Ethics and Licensure
 16 Del. Code 2508 1p
 N.J.A.C. 13:35-6.22 2p
 AMA Code Med. Ethics 8.115 1p
 Pope Br. in Betancourt v. Trinitas Hosp. (N.J.A.D. 2010) 5p
5. Limitation
Tunkl v. Regents U. Calif. (Cal. 1963) 9p
Ruiz v. Podolsky (Cal. 2010) 8p
 Discharge against Advice Form 1p
 Film clip: Ghost Town (2008)

2. Informed Consent

- A. Distinguishing Battery
 Restatement (Second) Torts 15, illus. 1 1p
- B. Disclosure Standards: Material Risk (Reasonable Patient)
 There are two main disclosure standards in the United States. These define the scope of the physician's duty. Around half the states require the physician to disclose information that a reasonable person would consider material to the treatment decision.
Canterbury v. Spence (D.C. 1972) 37p
Arato v. Avedon (Cal. 1993) 12p
Wilson v. Merritt (Cal. App. 2006) 9p
- C. Disclosure Standards: Custom (Reasonable Physician)
 Around half the states require the physician to disclose information that the reasonably prudent physician would disclose under the circumstances.

Safe Harbors	Conscience Clauses

F. Causation

Spencer v. Goodill (Del. 2011) 10p

Part 1: Materialization: The plaintiff suffered an injury that is within the scope of the undisclosed risk.

Part 2: Scientific causation: The plaintiff's injury would not have occurred but for the materialization of the undisclosed risk.

Part 3: Objective hypothetical conduct: The reasonable person in the plaintiff's position would not have consented to the procedure but for the breach (lack of disclosure).

Locke v. Pachtman (Mich. 1994) 10p

Hill v. McCartney (Iowa App. 1998) 4p

C. Variations in the Standard of Care

1. Economic

Most states follow a national standard of care. But there may be variations to account for differences in resources.

Hall v. Hilbun (Miss. 1985) (majority) 21p

2. Geographical

While a strict locality rule has been abandoned, some states still follow some version of a “same or similar community” standard.

Lewis, JAMA (2007) 4p

Chapel v. Allison (Mont. 1990) 6p

Shaffer v. Yang (Ark. App. 2010) 3p

3. Schools of Thought (Respectable Minority)

Whether at the national, statewide, or same or similar community level; there may be more than one legitimate standard of care.

Jones v. Chidester (Pa. 1992) 6p

PA Civil Jury Instruction 11.04 9p

4. Judicial

In the extraordinarily uncommon and exceptional case, the standard of care might be set by the court instead of by expert witnesses.

Helling v. Carey (Wash. 1974) 3p

5. Clinical Practice Guidelines

Both as part of a greater move toward evidence-based medicine and as a way to reduce defensive medicine, policymakers have reinvigorated efforts to define the standard of care with CPGs.

D. Expert Witnesses: Qualification

An expert witness is almost always needed to establish the standard of care. The standard of care must typically be established to prove breach.

Thompson v. Carter (Miss. 1987) (majority) 7p

F. Causation: But For

Medical malpractice plaintiffs must typically establish that they would not have been injured “but for” the defendant’s negligence. Yet, in some jurisdictions plaintiffs can alternatively establish that defendant’s negligence deprived them of a “chance” at avoiding injury.

B. Vicarious Liability

Establishing the vicarious liability of a hospital or other institution/facility entails two steps. First, you must establish the liability of the individual provider. Second, you must establish that relationship between that individual and the institution afford a basis for vicarious liability.

C. ERISA Preemption (502 Complete Preemption)

The only type of claim against a MCO that can be preempted by ERISA is a claim for negligent UR. Vicarious liability and negligent selection/retention theories are unaffected.

C. Initiatives to Reform Medical Malpractice Litigation

1. Reducing Claims Frequency

Statutes of limitations	Limiting contingency fees
Damage caps	Pretrial screening panels
Certificate/affidavit of merit	Stricter substantive law

2. Reducing Claims Severity

Damage caps	Collateral source offset
Periodic payments	Limit joint & several

Fein v. Permanente (Cal. 1985) (majority) 18p
Perry v. Shaw (Cal. App. 2001) 3p

3. Increasing the Certainty of Frequency and Severity

6. Improving the Quality of Care Itself
 - Pay for performance
 - “Never events”

7. Provider Licensure

A majority of our time in this course will be focused on tort-based liability. But that is only one quality-assuring mechanism. Another is licensure. Both individual providers and healthcare institutions must be licensed by the state.
