AMENDED ORDER GRANTING INJUNCTION AGAINST PAULINA CASILLAS

Before the Court is Defendant’s Motion to Modify the Order Granting Injunction Against Paulina Casillas. Being well and sufficiently advised, the Court finds and orders as follows:

1. On September 17, 2024, Arkansas Children’s Hospital filed a Motion for Permanent Injunction (the “Motion”).
2. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter and parties to this action.
3. On October 22, 2024, the Court held a hearing on the Motion.
4. On November 1, 2024, the Court entered an Order Granting Injunction Against Paulina Casillas. The Defendant’s minor child, DC remains hospitalized at Arkansas Children’s Hospital and since the entry of the Permanent Injunction, the condition of the child has deteriorated. The Court hereby finds that it is in the child’s best interest that the Order Granting Injunction be amended as follows:

Casillas will be allowed to visit with DC at least one time per month.

Because of the complexity of the DC’s care, visitation will be limited to 1 hour and will take place in a room or unit determined by Arkansas Children’s Hospital to provide for the safety of DC and the staff of Arkansas Children's Hospital. Defendant will provide reasonable notice for visitation requests so to allow Arkansas Children's Hospital to make all the necessary arrangements for the visitation. Arkansas Children's Hospital will make all reasonable efforts to comply with the Defendants' request and, if unable to comply with a specific request, will offer an alternative time for the Defendant to visit.

5. The remaining terms of the Order Granting Injunction will remain in place.
6. The security requirement for this injunction will not be enforced, as there will be no costs or damages sustained by any party found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained. Ark. R. Civ. P. 65(c).
7. Pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. § 11-5-115(d), unless specifically modified or terminated by this Court, this injunction shall have statewide validity and may be enforced by this Court for any violation anywhere in the State and by any court of competent jurisdiction within the State for violations which may occur within that court's jurisdiction.
8. Pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. § 11-5-115(d), appropriate law enforcement agencies are directed to enforce this Court's order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
