Narrative Summary of Curriculum Vitae

Thaddeus Mason Pope, JD, PhD, HEC-C, is a foremost expert on medical law and clinical ethics. He focuses on improving medical decision-making and on protecting patient rights at the end of life.

Professor Pope has been a Fulbright Canada Research Chair in Health Law, Policy and Ethics at the University of Ottawa, and a visiting scholar at the Brocher Foundation in Switzerland. He is now a Professor at Mitchell Hamline School of Law and a Fellow of the Hastings Center. Pope is also Adjunct Professor with the Australian Centre for Health Law Research at Queensland University of Technology, and Adjunct Associate Professor with the Alden March Bioethics Institute at Albany Medical College.

Ranked among the Top 20 most cited health law scholars in the United States, Professor Pope has more than 300 publications. And Pope's engagement with these issues goes beyond academic scholarship. He bridges thought and action by developing amicus briefs, legislative testimony, and professional organization policy statements.

Before joining academia, Professor Pope clerked on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit and worked as a corporate litigator for Arnold & Porter LLP. Pope earned a JD and PhD (in philosophy and bioethics) from Georgetown University.
